Developing Creative Economies in Africa

Spaces and Working Practices

Edited by Brian J. Hracs, Roberta Comunian, and Lauren England

Series: Routledge Contemporary Africa

Bringing together the experience of academics and practitioners, this book discusses creative economies in Africa, focusing on changing dynamics related to working, co-working and clustering. The contributors in this volume examine how strategies and opportunities such as co-working spaces, clustering and hubs facilitate the emergence of creative industries in a range of African countries including Kenya, Uganda, South Sudan, Nigeria, Tanzania and South Africa. This book will be of interest to students, scholars and professionals researching the creative economies in Africa across the humanities and social sciences.
